Re: Unopposed Request to Reschedule Oral Argument
Schiller-Egles v. The PromptCare Companies, Inc., No. 23 Civ. 6790 (KMK)

Dear Judge Karas,

We represent Plaintiff in the above-referenced matter. We write in response to your Honor's denial of our adjournment request dated August 29, 2023. I apologize for failing to include the reason for the requested adjournment. I make the request because I am a divorced father who does not utilize child care, and am responsible for picking my children up from school. September 7, 2023 is my children's first day of school and my 9-year old daughter needs to be picked up from school at 2:30 p.m., and my 12-year old daughter needs to be picked up from school at 3:00 p.m., which is the time of the conference. If I were to attend the conference scheduled on September 7, 2023, I would be in the car on Bluetooth with my two children in the car. The suggested dates were merely that, and an attempt to alleviate a future request for adjournment based on the Parties' schedules.

We thank the Court for its time and attention.

Granted. The conference will go forward on 9/15/2023 at 10:00 via teleconference.

SO ORDERED

KENNETH M. KARAS U.S.D.J.

Respectfully submitted,
